

TD SERVICE COMPANY PRIVACY POLICY

1. General Information

TD Service Company respects the privacy of visitors to our online site. The nature of our site minimizes the amount of personal information required to use our services and it should be noted that private information is not required to use the general features of our website.

Because TD's website is geared towards a B2B (business to business) model and not individual consumers, some business applications are offered through it. In order to use some of those business features you must first complete a registration form that will require you to give contact information (such as name and email address). We use this information to grant you access to that business application. In most cases you will only be asked for User ID and password, as issued by TD Service Company.

Any personal information gathered on this site through the features offered will be kept strictly confidential and will only be used in ways for which you have specifically consented. We do not sell, lend or rent any personal information collected from you to any third party. We take special care to protect the privacy and security of your information.

2. Privacy Contact Information

You can contact TD Service Company regarding privacy matters via traditional mail at:

TD Service Company
C/O IT Security Department
1820 E. 1st Street, suite 210
Santa ana, CA 92705
USA

3. Collection and Use of Personally Identifiable Information

TD Service Company will only collect personally identifiable data, such as your name, address, telephone number, or e-mail address, when it is voluntarily submitted to us at this website for granting access to one of our business applications (and only if it is required). This information will be collected through an online form for that application. No other third parties, either on our behalf or for themselves, will collect any Personally Identified Information through this website.

4. Tracking Technologies

4.1 Non-Personally Identifiable Information

This website also collects basic site traffic information. Examples of this type of aggregate information includes tracking the total number of visitors to our site, the number of visitors to each page of our site, the domain names of our visitors' Internet service providers, and other such technical information. This is technical information that does not by itself identify a specific individual. We use this data to better target our website offerings. No personally identifiable information is available in this type of traffic logging. We do not link aggregate user data to personally identifiable information.

4.2 Cookies

Our website does not use or store "cookies." A cookie is a token that a server gives to your browser when you access a website. Cookies are capable of storing many types of data for use by the webmasters in targeting marketing efforts and analyzing visitor's navigational patterns

5. Access to Your Information

If you would like us to delete any information we have about you, we shall unless its part of a condition of using one of our services. You may request to have your information deleted once the agreement of the service is deemed nullified. We will respond to your request to access, update or delete your information within ten (10) business days. Before we are able to provide you with any information, correct any inaccuracies or delete any information, however, we may ask you to verify your identity.

Requests for changes or deletions of your information should be directed as follows:

By email to: Privacy@tdsf.com

By traditional mail:

TD Service Company
Attn: IT dept- Privacy
1820 E. First St. Suite 210
Santa Ana CA 92705

6. Security

We take careful measures to prevent the loss, misuse, and alteration of your information. We use Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) technology supporting 128-bit encryption when we collect information from you or display information from our databases to you in the course of using our business applications. The information collected is stored on secure servers behind a firewall.

7. Disclosure of Information

All Personally Identified Information gathered can be disclosed to judicial or other government agencies subject to warrants, subpoenas or other governmental orders.

8. Third Party Links and Advertisement

As a convenience to our visitors, TD's site currently contains links to other sites that we believe may offer useful information. The privacy policies and procedures described here do not apply to those sites. We suggest contacting those sites directly for information on their data collection and distribution policies. TD also contracts with Google to provide targeted ad links to our site visitors on some pages within TD's website. These links belong to Google and are not subject to TD's privacy policies. While TD hosts the targeted links, no personal or site visitor information is provided to Google. Google will track the number of users clicking on a link and provide that information to TD Service Company on a regular basis. Personal information is not collected, stored or transmitted to Google by TD Service Company.

9. General Disclaimer

Access to or use of the TD website constitutes consent to the following terms.

TD has taken reasonable measures to ensure that the information and data presented on this website is accurate and current. However, TD makes no express or implied warranty regarding such information or data, and hereby expressly disclaims all legal liability and responsibility to persons or entities who use or access this site and its content, based on their reliance on any information or data that is available through this website. Further, this website does not purport to authoritatively interpret current federal statutes, regulations, orders or other federal authority, nor does it bind TD with regard to the matters presented.

Reference to any specific commercial product, process, or service by trade name, trademark, or otherwise does not constitute an endorsement, a recommendation, or a favoring by TD Service Company or its affiliates, divisions or sub-companies.
